

WEDGED INTERURBAN CARRYING KLANSMEN, HOLDS UP TRAFFIC

Workers Tuesday morning removed the special interurban of the Union Traction company which became wedged under the C. and O. bridge at First and Main streets at 12 o'clock Monday night as it started to leave the city with its special delegation of the Ku Klux Klan which attended Klan ceremonies here during the evening. The car entered the city from the west and passed under the bridge without difficulty on the incoming trip. Going out, the trolley and top of the car would not pass under the bridge. Traffic on the interurban lines was held up Tuesday morning until 10:30 o'clock.

The special was an unusually high interurban. It was necessary to remove the trolley to get the car from under the bridge. City street cars were compelled to transfer their passengers around the interurban, causing citizens considerable delay in getting to their places of work.

Form Parade.
Members of the Klan, numbering nearly 475, formed a line of march east on Main street Monday night and were disturbed only by John McConlogue, who stepped from the side-lines at Fifth and Main streets and caused a temporary disturbance. McConlogue struck one member of the Klan, who was marching in the line. McConlogue was then quieted by other members of the Klan. Officer Ray, standing nearby in the line of spectators, arrested McConlogue. McConlogue was released by police, as no charge was made against him.

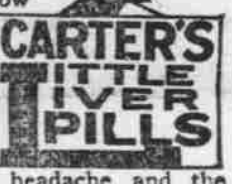

After the Klansmen had marched east on Main street and returned they went to the Coliseum for their meeting, at which Dr. V. C. Blair, of Plainfield, gave an explanatory talk on the activities of the Ku Klux Klan.

Crowd in Coliseum.
A crowd which taxed the space at the Coliseum was waiting for the ceremonies for quite a long time before the Klansmen finally arrived. The members of the Klan entered the Coliseum at about 10 o'clock led by their band, color bearer and the electric cross.

Spectators began to line Main street as early as 7 o'clock in anticipation of the parade of the Klan, which did not start until about 9:30 o'clock. Delegations were said to be present from Muncie, Indianapolis, Anderson, Kokomo, Hagerstown, Knightstown, Marion, Connersville and Richmond. An interurban arrived from Indianapolis.

Place Your Order Now For a 1923 Calendar

Calendar time is almost here and our Washington Information Bureau is going to present every reader of the paper with a copy of a beautiful and serviceable calendar for 1923.

While the calendars will not be ready until late in December, readers are requested to place their orders at once. The envelopes will be addressed and stamped, and as soon as the stock is ready all advance orders will go out in the rotation in which they are received.

The Navy Department has prepared an especially attractive calendar this year. It is printed on stiff, white card-board, and carries a picture, "America Advances," reproduced in four colors. The theme is patriotic and inspiring. The pads that show the passing of the days of 1923 are outstanding and effective.

Send for your copy today. Simply fill out and mail the coupon below, enclosing two cents in stamps for return postage. Write your name and address clearly.

(Do not send the coupon to The Palladium. Mail it direct to Washington, D. C.)

Hi-Y Boys Hear Talks

Following Initiation

The following boys were initiated into the Hi-Y club at its meeting Monday night at the Y. M. C. A.: Rex Sauter, Marion Thomas, Thomas Bantz, Howard Mills, Dave Hasemier, George Peacock, Raymond Bailey, John Fancher and Willard Crandall. Following the initiation, Mr. Herz of the Richmond Baking company, and Mr. Shuman of South America gave short talks. Mr. Shuman spoke on the life in South America and the Y. M. C. A. work. Jack Mattox gave a Bible reading that was well received. Plans were made for the Christmas party to be held at the Y. M. C. A. on next Monday night for the benefit of the poor children of the city. This affair will be one of the features of the Hi-Y calendar for the year.
